Principle Building Agreement and N/S Subcontract Agreement

30 January 2019

Don't accept work without knowing your contract!

BOOK YOUR SEAT TODAY!

The use of standard JBCC Principle Building Agreement and Subcontract Agreements makes contracting easier and protects both the subcontractor and main contractor.

MBA North has created practical training for parties to use and understand these agreements & protect their rights within the contract.

Who should attend this course?

Main Contractors, Subcontractors, Contracts Managers, Site Agents, Quantity Surveyors, those tasked with tender and procurement processes of the company.

Accreditation: Even though this is a NON-CPD accredited course, it is a hands-on training of the document, to ensure that those who attended the training are well versed in the JBCC Agreements.

The Facilitator

Gretchen Beukes is the Legal and Contractual Chairperson at the MBA North. She is a practicing Mediator, Adjudicator and Arbitrator of Construction Contract Disputes. She is also the founding partner or Constructive Consulting Group of which consults to clients on the standard forms of contract including specialization in the JBCC suite of agreements.
